

Pamela Nowina has been Vice-Chair of the Ontario Energy Board since July of 2005. As Vice-Chair, Ms. Nowina sits on the Management Committee of the Board. In addition to her governance responsibilities, Ms. Nowina has presided over many of the OEB's most significant cases. She also has a key role in developing many of the Board's policies and chairs the Board's Electricity Infrastructure Committee.

Ms. Nowina has more than 25 years of experience in the natural gas and electricity sectors. Ms. Nowina was a partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers and IBM where she was responsible for the Energy Strategy Practice in Canada.

Prior to this, Ms. Nowina was an executive at Compugen Systems and held several management positions at Union Gas Ltd. Ms. Nowina holds a Bachelor of Computer Science from the University of Windsor and an MBA from the University of Toronto.

Ms. Nowina was recently Chair of the Board of Nazareth House, a shelter for women and babies at risk and on the Board I.T. Committee of Mount Sinai Hospital. Currently, Ms. Nowina sits on the Board of Saint Elizabeth Health Care Foundation. Saint Elizabeth's is a leading national health care provider.