

ARMANDO MARIANTE CARVALHO - RÉSUMÉ

Chemical engineer (UFRJ-Brazil) with a master degree in Production Engineer (PUC-Brazil) and an extension in business studies at London Business School (England).

Joined BNDES as a trainee in the seventies and developed a sound track record in the bank as Manager of the Chemical Department, Manager of the Energy Department, Superintendent of Equity Participations and Executive Director of Finame (Subsidiary of BNDES responsible for Eximbank activities).

Also worked for FAO as senior officer from 1985 to 1988 stationed in Rome .

From 1988 to 94, was Director of BBM Investment Bank, a quite successful private Brazilian Bank.

In 2000 was appointed President of Inmetro – The Brazilian official institute of metrology and quality.

Appointed Director of BNDES in December 2004 and Vice-President in April 2006, he is responsible for the Industrial Area, the Foreign Trade Area and the International Area.